Activity 1– August 31st to September 13th:

Hello everyone, how's it going? Are you ready for one more step to improve your writing skills and vocabulary? Stay strong! This month we're gonna focus on Reviews!

- First of all, do you know what a review means?

According to dictionary.com:

Review, criticism imply careful examination of something, formulation of a judgment, and statement of the judgment, usually in written form. A review is a survey over a whole subject or division of it, or especially an article making a critical reconsideration and summary of something written: a review of the latest book on Chaucer. A criticism is a judgment, usually in an article, either favorable or unfavorable or both: a criticism of a proposed plan. The words are interchanged when referring to motion pictures or theater, but review implies a somewhat less formal approach than criticism in referring to literary works: movie reviews; play reviews; book reviews.

Movie Review

1. Watch the videos how to write a movie review: (Watch both of them, one is an overall idea, the other one is more detailed)
